

Pittsburgh Regional Transit

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (June 28, 2023) - Pittsburgh Regional Transit will operate modified service on Tuesday, July 4, for Independence Day.

Buses will operate on Sunday schedules. The light rail will operate on special holiday schedules that can be found at www.rideprt.org/holidays.

Due to anticipated high ridership at the Monongahela Incline, PRT will attempt to provide shuttle buses to transport riders up to Mt. Washington. Shuttle bus service will depend on employee availability.

Riders are encouraged to allow for additional travel time and to check www.rideprt.org/detours/ before heading out.

PRT Customer Service will be open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Downtown Service Center and administrative offices will be closed in observance of the holiday.

Bus and rail service will follow regular weekday schedules on Monday, July 3 and Wednesday, July 5.

Riders with questions are encouraged to contact PRT Customer Service by calling 412-442-2000 on Twitter @pghtransitcare or via live chat during regular business hours at www.rideprt.org.
