

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (August 5, 2020) – Five Port Authority employees tested positive for COVID-19 since last week’s update, bringing the total number of employee cases to 37.

Case 33

A bus operator who works in the Port Authority's Ross garage. The employee last worked on Saturday, July 26 and has been off in a medically-directed self-quarantine since then.

Case 34

A Port Authority police officer tested positive and last worked on Monday, July 27. The officer has been in a medically-directed self-quarantine since that time.

Case 35

A bus operator who works in the Port Authority's garage in Ross. The employee last worked on Monday, July 27 and has been in a medically-directed self-quarantine since then.

Case 36

A bus operator who works at Port Authority's garage in West Mifflin, this employee tested positive and last worked on Friday, July 31. The employee has been in self-quarantine since that time.

Case 37

A bus operator who most-recently worked at the Port Authority's garage in Ross. The employee has been off work since February 11, 2020.

Port Authority continues to follow all state and county health department guidelines and as with all previous cases, confidentially reported these cases to the Allegheny County Health Department.

Port Authority reminds all riders that vehicle capacity limits will remain in place so riders can socially distance as much as possible.

Face coverings are required at stops and stations, when boarding and riding inside vehicles, and at the Downtown Service Center.

###