

Pittsburgh Regional Transit

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (June 16, 2022) – Riders taking Pittsburgh Regional Transit on Saturday are encouraged to allow for additional travel time as detours for several events related to the Juneteenth holiday are expected to create delays in Downtown Pittsburgh and adjacent neighborhoods.

A complete list of detoured routes is available at www.portauthority.org/detours/

PRT will operate regular service schedules and maintain normal Customer Service hours throughout the weekend. Customer Service representatives will be available 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Downtown Service Center is closed on Sundays.

PRT service will also operate regular weekday service schedules on Monday, June 20. Customer Service representatives will be available regular weekday hours, 6 a.m. to 7 p.m., and the Downtown Service Center will be open regular weekday hours, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
