

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (July 29, 2020) – Three Port Authority employees tested positive for COVID-19 since last week’s update, bringing the total number of employee cases to 32.

Case 30

A bus operator who works at Port Authority’s garage in Collier, this employee reported testing positive on Monday, July 27. The employee last worked on July 23 and has been in a medically directed precautionary self-quarantine since that time.

Case 31

A bus operator who works at Port Authority’s garage in Ross, this employee reported testing positive on Monday, July 27. The employee last worked on July 8 and has been in a medically directed precautionary self-quarantine since that time.

Case 32

A maintenance employee who works at a Port Authority facility at South Hills Junction, this employee reported testing positive on Tuesday, July 28. The employee last worked on July 21 and has been in a medically directed self-quarantine since that time.

Port Authority continues to follow all state and county health department guidelines and as with all previous cases, confidentially reported these cases to the Allegheny County Health Department.

Port Authority reminds all riders that vehicle capacity limits will remain in place so riders can socially distance as much as possible.

Face coverings are required at stops and stations, when boarding and riding inside vehicles, and at the Downtown Service Center.

###