

Pittsburgh Regional Transit Again Named Military Friendly® Employer

This is the second consecutive year PRT has been honored with the distinction

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (March 27, 2023) - Pittsburgh Regional Transit (PRT) is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a Military Friendly® employer for the second consecutive year.

The Military Friendly® designation is awarded to organizations that demonstrate a commitment to creating sustainable and meaningful benefits for the military community. Victory Media evaluates organizations based on their programs, policies, and outcomes in support of veterans, military personnel, and their families.

"We are honored to receive this recognition for the second year in a row," said PRT CEO Katherine Kelleman. "We are proud to support our military community and to offer opportunities for them to build long and successful careers at our agency."

PRT's commitment to supporting military personnel and veterans is reflected in its programs and policies. The organization provides a variety of benefits, including tuition reimbursement, military leave, and a Veterans Employee Resource Group.

The Military Friendly® designation is awarded based on a comprehensive survey that evaluates an organization's performance in various categories, such as hiring and onboarding practices, benefits, culture, and community engagement.

About Military Friendly®

Military Friendly® is the standard that measures an organization's commitment, effort, and success in creating sustainable and meaningful benefits for the military community. The designation is owned by Victory, Inc., a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business. Victory is not affiliated with or endorsed by the U.S. Department of Defense or the federal government. Results are produced via a rules-based algorithm. The data-driven Military Friendly® lists and methodology can be found at <https://www.militaryfriendly.com/mfcguide>

###