

Several Bus Routes to Detour in Downtown Pittsburgh for Annual St. Patrick's Day Parade

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (March 10, 2023) – About 50 Pittsburgh Regional Transit bus routes will be detoured on Saturday for the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in downtown Pittsburgh.

Although most buses will be detoured starting at 9 a.m., buses that use the Boulevard of the Allies or Liberty Avenue in the Strip District will be detoured starting at about 7 a.m. Most buses will return to their regular route by about 3 p.m. although some routes will remain detoured until 5 p.m.

For information about specific bus routes, please visit www.rideprt.org/StPatricksDay.

A light rail shuttle will operate between Penn Station and Steel Plaza Station from 7 a.m. until about 1:30 p.m. to transport riders from the Martin Luther King Jr. East Busway. These trips will be coordinated with buses arriving downtown via the busway.

Riders with questions about detours are encouraged to contact PRT Customer Service by calling 412-442-2000, on Twitter @pghtransitcare or via live chat at www.rideprt.org. Customer Service representatives are available weekdays from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. and from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on weekends and holidays.
