

PRT named Military Friendly employer for third year in a row

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (November 10, 2023) – Pittsburgh Regional Transit (PRT) is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a Military Friendly® employer for the third year in a row.

The Military Friendly® designation is awarded to organizations that demonstrate a commitment to creating sustainable and meaningful benefits for the military community. Victory Media evaluates organizations based on their programs, policies, and outcomes in support of veterans, military personnel, and their families.

Also, for the second year in a row, PRT has been awarded the “Gold Star” status. Gold Award winners score within 20 percent of the 10th-ranked organization within a given category.

PRT employs more than 200 veteran-employees, whose work in various departments moves Allegheny County forward.

PRT's commitment to supporting military personnel and veterans is reflected in its programs and policies. The organization provides a variety of benefits, including tuition reimbursement, military leave, and a Veterans Employee Resource Group.

Thank you for your service to our country then and thank you for your service to our riders now.

The Military Friendly® designation is awarded based on a comprehensive survey that evaluates an organization's performance in various categories, such as hiring and onboarding practices, benefits, culture, and community engagement.

About Military Friendly®

Military Friendly® is the standard that measures an organization's commitment, effort, and success in creating sustainable and meaningful benefits for the military community. The designation is owned by Viqtory, Inc., a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business. Viqtory is not affiliated with or endorsed by the U.S. Department of Defense or the federal government. Results are produced via a rules-based algorithm. The data-driven Military Friendly® lists and methodology can be found at <https://www.militaryfriendly.com/mfcguide>
