

Wood Street Station to Remain Open Next Week

The installation of new escalators will be completed at a later date

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (November 1, 2023) – Wood Street Station will remain open next week. The station had been scheduled to be closed from November 6-17 for the installation of new escalators.

Crews will continue to prepare for the new escalators, which will be installed at a later date.

Replacing the escalators is part of a $13.5 million project to replace nine escalators at three downtown light-rail stations to improve performance, safety, and reliability.
