FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (November 1, 2024) - With a host of events converging in downtown Pittsburgh on Monday, non-essential Pittsburgh Regional Transit employees will be dismissed at noon on Monday.

PRT Customer Service representatives will maintain regular hours (via live chat until 8 p.m. and via phone until 7 p.m.) by working from home.

PRT's Downtown Service Center will close at noon. The ticket vending machine inside the vestibule of the service center will remain accessible until 6 p.m.

Buses, the light-rail system, and the Mon Incline will operate on regular weekday schedules.
