Final Pittsburgh Marathon Closure - Pittsburgh Marathon (P3R) –
Late Afternoon Continued Removal Of Finish Line Closure On The Boulevard
Of The Allies

Temporary Deviation on Routes

56 - Lincoln Place
67 - Monroeville

57 -Hazelwood

58 -Greenfield
69 -Trafford

(West Mifflin East Liberty)

Effective: 5/1/2022 to 5/1/2022

Sunday

Effective Sunday, May 1, 2022 From Approximately 5:00 PM To Around 7:00 PM

At the conclusion of all Pittsburgh Marathon (P3R) events on Sunday afternoon, May 1, 2022, breakdown, dis-assembly and removal of the finish line footprint and closure will begin along the Boulevard of the Allies.

Boulevard of the Allies which will first be blocked from Smithfield Street to Commonwealth Place will have the finish line removed and cleaned in stages to open a number of intersecting streets, including the Wood Street Bus Lane.

Once those portions are removed, and Wood Street, its bus lane and Stanwix Street are re-opened, the remainder of the Boulevard will be closed until all materials are removed.

The final closure and bus detours related to same will occur on Sunday, May 1, 2022 from approximately 5:00 PM to around 7:00 PM.

After 7:00 PM, all streets will have re-opened, buses returned to regular route and the P3R Pittsburgh Marathon events will have been successfully concluded for 2022.

This Detour Will Supersede Notice #22-111-0 at approximately 5:00 PM.

Routes no longer listed will return to regular route; routes remaining will move to this smaller detour.

This Detour Will Be Effective Upon Notice From Bus Traffic Operations (BTO) Or By A Road Operations Supervisor On The Scene.

Resumption of regular route will be announced by Bus Traffic Operations (BTO).
